Top Producer of the Year

Working as a salesperson is a competitive enterprise that takes enormous dedication, tenacity, and intelligence.

Distinguishing yourself as an exceptional talent in the field requires a deeper level of commitment and an intangible quality that borders on magic. Corcoran is proud to honor our extraordinary agents whose sales record in 2008 made them the top salesperson in their office.
